

Help with health costs - low income scheme

Entitlement to help with health costs (HC3 certificate)

What you're entitled to

Prescriptions This certificate does not entitle you to free prescriptions.

Sight tests

£x.xx Towards a private sight test, you pay a maximum of: To claim, show this to the staff in the opticians.

Glasses or contact lenses

fx.xx Towards an optical voucher, you pay: See part B overleaf for help on how to claim help with glasses or contact lenses.

NHS dental treatment

£x.xx Per course of treatment, you pay a maximum of: See part C overleaf for help on how to claim help with NHS dental treatment.

Travel to receive NHS treatment

£x.xx Towards travel, in a week you pay: See part E overleaf for information on how to claim help with travel.

NHS Wigs, or NHS fabric supports

Per prescribed item you pay a maximum of: See part F overleaf for information on how to claim help with NHS Wigs, or NHS fabric supports

This certificate does not affect any entitlement to help you already have, for example if you already get help because of your age or a medical condition.

You can view a breakdown of how your entitlement was worked out at: www.nhs.uk/lowincome

To change your details or tell us your circumstances have changed go to: www.nhs.uk/lowincome/3-W1K7G8C4

Improper use of this certificate may lead to prosecution.

Entitlement for Priya Mattu Vinay Mattu

Certificate number

3-W1K7G8C4

Valid dates from: 14 July 2010 14 August 2010 to:

£x.xx